"Excellent, interesting, and insightful presentation... This guy is a must!"

- Barrie Barrett,

Academy of Chief Executives (UK) Group Chairman

Recently voted "Speaker of the Year" by the Academy for Chief Executives, Dr Graeme Codrington is regularly the best ranked presenter on the programmes he facilitates. Speaking internationally to over 100,000 people every year, he has shared the platform with the likes of Edward de Bono, Jonas Ridderstrale and Neil Armstrong. His client list includes some of the world's top companies, and CEOs invite him back time after time to share his latest insights.

Applying his research and exceptional insights, Graeme shows how to address people-related problems faced by leaders, including how to attract, retain and get the most out of talented staff across different generations, and how to enhance customer loyalty and service.

Graeme's breadth of knowledge and expertise makes him highly relevant in today's rapidly evolving business world. He has formal qualifications in business administration, accounting, theology and sociology, and a wide range of business experience, from articles at KPMG to an IT startup, and professional musician to keynote speaker.
